CONTENT CONTRIBUTION TO THE ARCHIVE

This document is an agreement between Archive of Market and Social Research (hereafter referred to as “AMSR”) and the individual or organisation making a contribution of material to AMSR.

Please identify the materials which you are offering to AMSR. Please state the format (paper/digital) and title.

Your name:

Company you represent (if appropriate):

Address (for material collection purposes):

Ownership Agreement: (Please check appropriate boxes; if any item requires a different answer, complete a separate form)

I wish to offer the items listed above to AMSR and confirm that ... (please check one box).

- ☐ I, the owner, have full power to transfer them to AMSR or otherwise to dispose of them as I see fit
- ☐ I, the contributor, acting on behalf of the undisputed owners, am authorised by them to contribute these items to AMSR and have full power to transfer them to AMSR or otherwise to dispose of them as I see fit.
- ☐ I, the contributor, am unsure of the legal ownership of these items, but wish them to be saved for posterity. I understand that AMSR will not put these items in the public domain, or make them publicly available, until either ownership is established, and the legal owner agrees, or 30 years have passed from the date of authorship or sooner at the discretion and risk of AMSR. I personally have no objection to these items being made publicly available.

☐

Please mark here if you require the material to be returned to you after scanning/cataloguing

Copyright Agreement: (Please check one box; if any item requires a different answer, complete a separate form)

☐ I, as the copyright holder or representative of the copyright holder, have full power to transfer this material to AMSR for inclusion in their archive.

☐ I do not own nor represent the owner of the copyright (or other intellectual property rights) in the materials, but I have provided any information which I have on the ownership of those rights below.

Please provide details of any copyright or intellectual property information for the item(s) you are donating.

AMSR will respond to Data Access requests arising from the inclusion of this material in the archive. AMSR will appraise all contributed materials for personal data and ensure that all due care is taken to preserve the security of personal data and conform to current Data Protection legislation.

Potential use of material agreement: (Please tick appropriate boxes; if any item requires a different answer, complete a separate form)

I wish to offer the items listed above to AMSR and confirm that:

- ☐ I understand that this material may be used or reproduced, in both physical and electronic format, for articles, research, promotions and exhibitions within AMSR and by the general public, news media and other organisations.
- ☐ I understand that material accessed directly from AMSR archive for reproduction elsewhere will be attributed to the originating author or body and to AMSR. Where that material is subsequently used by other authors, including material generated by Artificial Intelligence, or where directly accessed by Artificial Intelligence software, it may or may not be attributed.
- ☐ Contributed material may appear in AMSR promotional initiatives, such as on the website, in social media or reproduced in AMSR books.
- ☐ I understand that my contributions may be kept in separate collections, in different areas of the archive. Although avoided where possible, they may be subject to deaccession/removal from the collections at the discretion of AMSR, in keeping with the Archives Collection Policy. In the event of deaccession I may be contacted at the address provided above for a return of the material. I understand that any deaccessioned material which is not returned to the original contributor will be securely destroyed.

If AMSR determines that any of these items are unnecessary for their archive, I request the following:

- ☐ They should be disposed of as the AMSR sees fit.
- ☐ They should be returned to me at the address shown above.

This form should accompany every contribution to the AMSR and, if hard copy, should be included in the parcels of material sent to AMSR at the address below.

If you have questions, or would like to discuss a longer or shorter embargo than 30 years on public access, please contact Contents Committee Chairman by email: content@amsr.org.uk
